Richardson PD to Receive State Farm® Grant to Improve Traffic Safety

Check presentation set for Friday, April 17

April 13, 2015 (Richardson, TX) – A $25,000 grant from State Farm will help Richardson Police enhance its driver safety and education program.

The grant will fund video equipment for the in-house production of auto safety videos to be shared through social media, school and community presentations, and patrol briefings.

The program is intended to increase awareness of distracted, impaired, and dangerous driving, while also gaining voluntary compliance with traffic laws.

Media are invited to attend a check presentation. Details are as follows:

Date: Friday, April 17, 2015

Time: 9:00am

Location: Richardson Police Dept. located at 140 N Greenville Ave. in Richardson
